

Martha Isabel Fandiño Pinilla (born in Pacho, Colombia), Colombian and Italian citizenship. Graduated in “Education Science with a Specific Study in Mathematics” (Bogotá National Pedagogical University). Specialized in “Mathematics Education” (Bogotá University District). PhD in Mathematics Education (University of Nitra, Slovakia). He first taught at the Primary School, then at the High School, and finally at the National Pedagogical University of Bogota University District, especially in postgraduate courses for the teachers of Mathematics training. She has held courses as a contract professor at the University of Bologna (until 2015), the University of Urbino, the University School of Locarno (Switzerland), the University of Bolzano and others. Currently he is in charge of courses at the Universities of Medellin, Cali, Tunja and Manizales; holds seminars and is a collaborator of PhD thesis in Educación Matemática of the Distrital University of Bogota

She has been a consultant for the National Ministry of Education of Colombia Program for the Evaluation and Qualification of Mathematics Teachers; he was a member of the Italian Valuation Commission of Invalsi; has held courses for ministerial inspectors on behalf of the Italian Ministry of Public Education; has taught teachers of all levels in various countries around the world; has held seminars at national and international conferences in various countries around the world.

It is part of the scientific committees of research magazines and international conferences; in particular she was co-Scientific Director of the National Meeting Incontri con la Matematica in Castel San Pietro Terme.

He has more than 320 written works, including books and articles published in various languages. Among these writings, some are closely related to the research in question.

He has an intensive research activity on mathematics in the NRD of the Department of Mathematics at the University of Bologna, with funds of ex-60% and 40% MIUR (for all levels of school).

He is an editorial consultant for an important publishing house in Florence.

The full CV is available in English and Spanish wikipedia:

https://es.wikipedia.org/wiki/Martha_Isabel_Fandiño_Pinilla

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Martha_Isabel_Fandiño_Pinilla or on the following sites:

<http://www.dm.unibo.it/rsddm>

<http://www.incontriconlamatematica.org>

<http://www.incontriconlamatematica.net>